Transport Division

Transport, a mainstay of Al Rakha group, allows us to offer a complimentary service to our clients. We have our own transportation facilities (small pick-ups to heavy equipment) to move things from one place to another. Unlike other construction companies, we do not have to wait for rentals to move heavy materials.

We have innovative ways to lower transportation costs and are committed to maintain the highest possible standards of service in every aspect of our business. Our clients need a safe pair of hands into which they can entrust their business. Our futuristic and dynamic approach does not allow us to stand still. We constantly review and develop our services to match our clients' needs and exceed their expectations.

We also provide our equipment on rent in order to be more productive. Our equipment is well-maintained by a team of professional mechanics so that they are forever in top shape without any chance of sudden, unexplained breakdowns.
